

Aisha Alhajery

2221138474

Student Registration System

Functional requirements: what the system must do

- The system shall allow students to register for courses
- The system shall prevent students from registering for a course if prerequisites are not completed

Non-Functional requirements: how well the system works

- The system shall support 2,000 users per session
- The system shall respond to users' action within 2 seconds

Online store

Functional requirements: what the system must do

- The system shall allow costumers to search product by keyword
- The system shall allow users to add items to the cart to purchase product

Non-Functional requirements: how well the system works

- The system shall load within 3 seconds
- The system shall handle at least 100 transaction without crashing